

1983

Karn Charuhas Chapman & Twohey is an architecture, planning and interior design firm located in Washington, D.C. founded by four partners. The firm has grown to include a diverse team of forty-five.

89

KCCT International, Ltd. is established. To date, KCCT has designed projects in more than 140 foreign cities.

94

The façade completion for the Internal Revenue Service, represents our expertise in historic preservation and wins a national GSA Design Award for Historic Preservation.

86

Hamisburg Transportation Center, a restoration of a 1887 Queen Anne's style railway station, receives an Award of Excellence from the U.S. Department of Transportation and the National Trust for Historic Preservation.

90

KCCT's first of 12 transit projects, the Taipei Rapid System in Taiwan covered more than 74 miles and includes the design of 20 stations.

97

KCCT finishes two key preservation projects listed on the U.S. Secretary of State's Register of Culturally Significant Properties: The Schoenborn Palace in Prague, Czech Republic and the Chancery in Tirana, Albania.

As part of the Washington, D.C. Federal Triangle Master Plan, the Ariel Rios Façade Completion secures a Merit Award from the American Institute of Architects.

05

The Embassy in Port-au-Prince, Haiti receives a U.S. Department of State Green Award for Sustainable Design. This project demonstrates the firm's commitment to sustainability. KCCT employs thirteen LEED® accredited professionals.

09

With over 100 projects at U.S. Embassies, KCCT continues to uphold the standards for diplomatic design abroad. Eighty percent of KCCT professionals maintain active security clearances.

04

National Building Museum renovations spanned ten years, including exterior site work and landscaping, interior and gallery upgrades, continuing a legacy of historic preservation.

06

As designated Historic Preservation Officer, KCCT completes the Main State Modernization of the Harry S Truman Building. The 487,000sf project integrates interiors, security, and preservation.

We are privileged to have loyal clients and stimulating projects for 27 years. Thank you for supporting our design, creativity, and business practices. We look forward to serving our clients with another decade of design excellence.

2010